WATERFRONT NOTES

Heavy Seas Delay Work.

Owing to a heavy northerly swell which was reported as running off the coast of Hawaii the little Kauai steamer Noleau was unable to work cargo at this point on her last trip to the Garden Island. The Noleau returned to Honolulu this morning bringing an extra large shipment of "composites" in the line of bottles and other containers for "liquid cheer." The freight list included 47 sacks of rice, 34 sacks of sugar, 160 sacks of paddy, 355 sacks of sugar, 185 sacks of rice, and sundries. Fine weather was reported save on last Thursday and Friday when the steamer fell in with the heavy swell which prevented a quantity of Kailua freight being discharged.

Lodger to Carry Australian Mail.

The British steamship Lodger which has completed the discharge of nearly five thousand tons of coal brought from Newcastle, N. S. W., is to be dispatched for Australian ports at five o'clock this afternoon according to the present intentions of C. Brewer and Company, the local agents for the British freighter. This vessel will be given an accumulation of mail destined for Australia. There is a possibility that the Lodger may make another trip to the Islands with coal consigned to the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company. Several members of the crew left the vessel at this port and Captain Green was obliged to sign on a number of men for the fire room.

PEACE DOVE DRAW SNEAR WITH ARRIVAL OF MONGOLIA

Pacific Mail Liner Brings Few Passengers But Large Oriental Cargo—Mauna Kea and Noleau Are Here From Island Ports—British Steamer to Depart for Australian Ports This Afternoon—Nebraskan to Sail On Tuesday.

Perched on the mast head of the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia which has borne Dr. David Starr Jordan, across the Pacific, the dove of peace drew near to Honolulu shortly after the noon hour day and with the arrival of the big steamship off the quarantine Dr. Jordan, the distinguished educator and peace advocate was speedily sent on his way to the city where he is billed to participate in the ceremonies attendant the laying of the corner stone of the Library of Hawaii.

The Mongolia arrived here with a small through list of passengers. This vessel, however, has a very large quantity of Oriental freight amounting to over seventeen hundred and fifty tons.

As the vessel is said to carry a large shipment of tea and silk the officers are anxious to depart for San Francisco at the earliest possible moment and H. Hackfeld and Company have set the time of departure at nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

The Mongolia has room for one hundred and twenty-five cabin passengers and at noon today about fifty applicants for transportation to the Coast has been received.

The Mongolia will carry a very large mail to the mainland representing an accumulation since November 11th which shipment was taken to the mainland by the Matson Navigation steamer Wilhelmina.

Immediately following the arrival of the Mongolia at Alakahe wharf, a large force of stevedores began to get out the large and varied cargo including Japanese provisions and Oriental merchandise. The departure of the vessel tomorrow morning will doubtless draw quite a crowd of visitors and spectators.

Isthmusan Here Next Sunday.

The Isthmusan, the next American-Hawaiian freighter to arrive in the Islands will probably show up on or about next Sunday. The vessel comes from Salina Cruz by the way of San Francisco. Puget Sound ports have been omitted by the steamer. The Isthmusan is bringing New York cargoes numbered 35 and 36 which left the East coast port on September 6th and 11th and were transhipped at the Isthmus of Tehuantepec to the Pacific steamship.

The American schooner Forester which has been taking on a shipment of hardwood railway ties at Hilo is said to be manned by a crew recruited at Central and South American ports where prevailing wages range from fifteen to twenty dollars a month. Upon arrival at the Hawaii port a number of the men upon demanding that they be paid off are reported to have received but a very small amount of money. Several will ship in the vessel for a return to the Coast where better wages are the rule.

The schooner Camano, twenty-eight days out from Puget Sound with 800,000 feet of lumber at Hilo, arrived on Tuesday. Fifty thousand feet will be discharged into scows and then sent to Hakalau, this being done while the vessel is in the bay.

The C. S. Holmes finished discharging her cargo and after fumigation will leave for the Sound. She should get away today.

Start Made Around the World.

According to the calculations of the local representatives for the Hamburg American line the steamship Cleveland with some five hundred excursionists is to sail from New York today on a tour which will require several months to complete and which will include a call at a host of ports in the encircling of the globe.

The Cleveland has on two previous occasions visited Honolulu with excursionists. If the present arranged schedule is maintained the liner should arrive here en route from Yokohama to San Francisco on or about January 24th, 1912. A stay of one day will be made here. The local promotion bodies promise to assist in taking care of the tourists.

Fine Weather on the Homeward Trip.

Reports from officers in the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea tell of cording to report brought to this city fine weather having been met with on the homeward trip from Hilo. The er Mauna Kea. The following con-Mauna Kea was an early arrival and shipments are awaiting shipment: brought in addition to a fair list of Olau, 12,750; Punaluu, 3400 and Ho-cabin and deck passengers, a quantity of of freight including shipments of chickens, turkeys, pigs, a quantity of empty bottles and beer kegs, 1750 hardwood railway ties, 813 feet lumber, 32 cords wood, 21 sacks awa, 2 autos and 210 packages sundries.

Purser Phillips reports the steamer Kaula at Papaioa, the Kalulani at Paauhau and the Wallele at Honokaa. The Mauna Kea is scheduled for departure for Hilo and way ports on next Tuesday morning.

Captain Greene Claims a Bride.

The San Francisco newspapers make pleasing mention of the coming wedding of Captain Wodius Greene, master of the Japanese liner Chiyu Maru while at the Coast.

Captain Wodius Greene, commander of the T. K. K. liner Chiyu Maru, and Miss Gertrude Macfarlane, daughter of Clarence W. Macfarlane of Honolulu, were married in San Francisco on Monday, October 16. When the Chiyu Maru arrived at San Francisco on the last trip across the Pacific the captain was met at the wharf by his bride-to-be, and was motored up town in her machine.

Asleep at the Wharf.

Inter-Island steamship people were interested as well as amused at a startling bit of misinformation contained in this morning's paper to the effect that the steamers Likelike and Claudine were to sail for their respective ports of call at five o'clock Saturday evening. The steamers departed with their usual promptitude on Friday evening. In the meantime it is rumored that a "man with green eyes" may be performing somnambulistic stunts along the waterfront and therefore landed another victim from the ranks of the news gatherers on the morning paper.

A Prized Trophy.

President and General Manager J. A. Kennedy of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. has been presented with the piece of "blade" of a sword-fish which for the past six months or more has remained in a bottom plank in the steamer W. G. Hall. The Bulletin at the time made mention of an encounter with a large sword-fish and the discovery of a portion of the sword protruding through the hold. The Hall has been undergoing repairs on the marine railway at which time the damaged woodwork was removed and now has been added to the trophies on exhibition at the general office.

Sparks from the Wireless.

The following wireless reports have been received at the local office:
P. M. S. S. Manchuria, en route from San Francisco, 8 p. m.—1136 miles from San Francisco.
M. N. S. S. Enterprise, en route from San Francisco, 8 p. m.—558 miles off; raining; moderate south swell; arrive Monday morning.

There remains but little sugar at plantation warehouses on Hawaii according to report brought to this city today by Purser Phillips of the steamer Mauna Kea. The following con-Mauna Kea was an early arrival and shipments are awaiting shipment: brought in addition to a fair list of Olau, 12,750; Punaluu, 3400 and Ho-cabin and deck passengers, a quantity of
